Consultation Interview

On _____, concealed handgun permit applicant, _____
(DATE)
appeared at the _____, at which time consultation
(DIVISION/AREA OFFICE)
was held with the applicant and the following issues were discussed.

- 1.  Virginia Code Sections 18.2-308.016 (Retired law-enforcement officers; carrying a concealed handgun) and 18.2-308.014 (Reciprocity).
- 2.  Nationwide carry privileges authorized by the Law Enforcement Officers Safety Act, USC 926C. Annual firearms qualification is required to retain nationwide carry privileges.
- 3.  Corresponding Departmental Training Memo: _____
- 4.  A permit issued by the State Police Superintendent allows the holder to carry a concealed handgun anywhere in Virginia unless otherwise restricted by law.
- 5.  A permit issued by a circuit court must be renewed. A permit issued by the State Police Superintendent does not require periodic renewal. Annual firearms qualification is required to retain nationwide carry privileges.

(NOTE: All items must be discussed and checked.)

Based upon my consultation with the applicant, the issuance of authorization to carry a concealed handgun pursuant to Virginia Code Section 18.2-308.016 is:

- Recommended
- Not recommended for the following reason: _____
